Henry King and Jacob Meyer fell overbrard during the fight of roughs on bosyd of a steamboat going to the prize fight yesterday, and were drowned.

From the various accounts of the shooting affair at Broadway theater, last night, it was a morderous assault upon the frightened actors and actreases, who offered no resistance to the roughs employed as deputy sheriffs to arrest Harkins, upon an injunction issued by jumping over the orchestra, and made for the street. BALTIMORE, August 25.—Over ten thousand persons were present at the Schutzenfest to-day. The music, vocal and instrumental, was very fine, and the shooting during the afternoon brisk. The day was bright and cheerful and everything passed off most pleasantly.

BALTIMORE, August 25. - Michael Baltimore, August 25.—Michael Doyle, residing near Towsontown, Baitimore county, was shot and instantly killed, on the 22d inst., by John Carroll, a neighbor of his. A pig belonging to Carroll got into Doyle's corn field. An action was brought against Carroll for damages, and the trial was held on Saturday, after which the parties, as they were returning home, got into a quarrei that resulted in the killing of Doyle. Carroll was arrested and is now in jail.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, August 24—The meeting of General Rosecrans with ex-Confederate Generals and statesmen here, assumes importance from the frequent meetings that have been held yesterday and to-day. Gen. Rosecrans and Alexander H. Stevens were in consultation during a portion of yesterday evening, and by this even-ing it is expected that the programme agreed upon will be developed. All persons here, both Southerners and Northerners, are sanguine of the best results from the meeting. WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. VA.,

Sheriff Adrien, in a letter to Justice Shandley, defends the action of his deputies at the Broadway Theatre, and expresses a willingness to assume all responsibility. He asserts that they were assaulted by an armed mob of carpenters, scene shifters and actors, and beleving themselves in jeopardy resented the violence withfire-arms.

The Fenian Convention continued in secret session to-day. The report of the Chief Executive, Savage, was read, and Col. O'Brien, the permanent President, made an address. The military members of the Brotherhood are also holding a Convention, with General
Dennis Burkess, temporary chairman. There is nothing further in relation to the cattle disease.
